The day of the veterans is one of the eleven federal festivities in the United States for federal organizations and is a public holiday for all 50 states. Unlike Memorial Day, which is the day to honor those who died while serving in the military, the day of veterans is where the general public Those who served in the US army, whether both the American army, the marina, the body of the marine, the National Guardia, Air Force or Coast Guard. The day of veterans is always celebrated at the end of October or early November and it is a day full of fashion shows, discounts and a precious history lesson. Here are 5 interesting facts about veterans day. Do we celebrate it every year, but how did the day of veterans into force? Dates back to the signing of the Treaty of Versailles on June 28, 1919. While this day it will always be known as the official end of The war I also known as the Great War, was November 11, 1918, that the war has really ended when the armistice, or the temporary cessation of the hostility between German and the allied nations, entered into force. The following November in 1919, President Woodrow Wilson became known as President who celebrated the first commemoration of the armistice day. The name later has changed after World War II and the Korean War in November 1938, when it became the legal legal holiday we know and honor today, the day of veterans, which is dedicated to American veterans of all Wars. On this day, every state celebrates their veterans in one's unique way. The most common view is a committed parade full of veterans, school bands, American flags and patriotic music. The largest of these takes place in New York, but the day of the longest veteran is held in the south, in particular Birmingham, Alabama and has always been since 1947. In the DC, the National Cemetery of Arlington has a ceremony of the Arrangement of the crown at the tomb of the unknown soldier while the famous blue angels take the heavens to Pensacola, Florida. The churches participate in prayer services while government buildings proudly show the red, white and blue flag. But don't forget about food on veterans day. In addition to having great entertainment, veterans often receive fun discounts in local restaurants and shops. Local fast food restaurants or joints are often offering free breakfast for veterans and drinks or sockets for those who have a valid military ID form. While some have a card belonging to the veteran organization to show, others can offer unloading documents or even wear their uniform as an identification form, which could be sufficient for some places. Not only do the veterans receive discounts but also, but also the public offers some advantages, one of them is free admission to any national park in the United States. Because it is a federal holiday, all non-essential government offices are closed for the day at local and state level. Which companies and schools are closed for the day even if they vary from state to state. Often banks are closed for veterans' day, such as the great four, JpMorgan and Chase, Bank of America, Wells Fargo and Citibank. Also post offices, schools, libraries and markets also close, leaving national parks as a great option for your free day. The day of veterans is much more than just parades, free music and food but. It is an opportunity to show our gratitude to military men and women fight to maintain our country safe and free. It is a time when we can take a step back from the run of our daily life and teach our children on the history of our country, battles have had to fight and fight that many continue to fight.
