Top 14 Monster Legends Hack and Cheats for Free Gems

1. Know the ability of Monster Accurately

Each Monster has a specific ability towards a particular element. These elements have a priority setting in terms of one to one battle. Thus it is most essential to know correctly about the affinity of Monster towards the aspect and what takes privilege in terms of elements.

This priority of elements determines the outcome of the battle. The game algorithm has to be kept in mind in team building as well as defensive strategies. You can, however, get all these trainings at the beginning of the game but for better understanding follow our cycle of elements below.

2. Team building strategy

Creating a proper team of Monster require approach of mix and match. Your elemental affinity of needs to be verified. Primary habitats power need to be unlocked first. If you click on the Monster, you can understand what essential skill that Monster possesses and what needs to be unlocked.

However, it can be tempting to breed and feed monsters all the day, but the real game starts when they are set for battle, and on the battlefield, the real skill works.

3. Be a Breeding Master

Breeding the Monster with the appropriate strategy can completely change the game scenario. A simple alteration of a proper method can land up to a mess in the game. The monsters have an affinity towards four essential elements of nature categorically.

Those are fire, water, earth and nature. Also, the four primary habitats can possess two elements within them. Crossbreeding of two separate elemental monsters generates a stronger monster. Therefore a smart way of breeding can provide you with an advantage in the battle, and you need not have any other cheats for monster legends even if the various mixture of monsters are standing as your enemy.

4. Nurture and Feed the monsters

Feeding your Monster is an essential task in the game to make them happy. Monster Legends cheats say you must grow food accordingly so that you can feed your dragons. As you enter the game, you will know the food requirement of the Monster.

Proper optimisation of food production is an important task. It is worth saying to have a list of plants that are required for the monster feeding. As your level grows, your variety of plant increases and you need to allow them time to grow for a better yield.

5. Complete daily tasks

At a lower level, the daily tasks are a great source of income, and you must follow that. At the initial stage, when you are not sure about your strategy than following the achievement tasks gives you goal-oriented gameplay. As you achieve these goals, you get resources like gold foods and in some cases, gems.

Daily tasks are quite simple to complete, like gathering gold or hatching monsters. As you have the necessary skills of the game in your control, you can complete all the tasks. Monster legends cheats suggest for daily login where you can get one gem and completing all daily tasks you will get three gems. For all other jobs, you will plenty of gold.

6. Watch Monsterwood videos

When you complete 20 days of play, you can get monster wood videos. Monsterwood is a player region, and our best monster legends hack where advertisements (most of them usually 30 seconds lengthy) can be watched for benefits of jewels, gold, food, relics, monster cells, beasts and more. Social Point provides regular happy hours for players to reveal more advertisements and receive more benefits.

7. Level up by earning experience

The best way to get a recurrent gem is to level up in your game. To raise your level, you need to collect XPs which can be done in several means. At the top of the game, there is a level meter that shows your target to level up as well as the Xps that you have achieved.

Now, Completing daily task as we have mentioned earlier can gain you 500 XPS. Other monster legends cheats of gaining XPs are clearing debris, fighting Monster and adding friends. Out of which you profit the most from cleaning your land.

8. Clear Meteorites

You must clear any meteorite for an opportunity to discover a jewel on your island. Meteors are often found in the land. Apart from removing trees you have to remove them as well from the land. Besides gaining XP some times, gems are hidden underneath. As you clear it, you get to collect them.

9. Fight bosses on the adventure map.

Fighting in adventure maps can gain you XP, but when you fight against the boss, you get a chance to win gems. But in this case, you need to have legendary monsters to win the game. Legendary monsters can be bought with gems and worth buying in offers.

10. Never spend gems for a regular task.

In monster legends, gems are the prime element that can give you everything in need. We strictly advise being a miser in case of spending gems. Never rush to complete any task and keep patience. Otherwise, you will lose a lot of gems unknowingly that can be effective at a later stage. Don't ever spend any gem to buy any resource like food gold unless you have no stone altered.

11. Priorities your gem spend

While spending gems, you must prioritise the requirement. As an example, we recommend, always save gems from getting a legendary monster instead of getting a breeding tree. The breeding tree requires 75 gems even in sale and offer.

If you get Breeding Guardian that is sufficient. Saving gems, you can get a legendary monster and can be on top of the leader board for quite a long time.

12. Never purchase more builders and hatcheries

Even though some user is suggesting to get all five builders, Our monster legends hack is to do your work with two builders only. Same goes for hatcheries. Our hack is to get only two of them and leave the rest. In that case, you can save a lot of gems.

13. PVP

Monster legend is not all about breeding and feeding, but it is for winning battles When fighting in progressives first load some low-level beasts. One of the Monster legends cheats is to get out of the chase and again plug in and place your primary Monsters.

You will face low-level opponents which you can win quite easily.

14. Connect with Facebook

Linking your account with Facebook gives you a lot of gems and gold. When you link for the first time you get a chance to win some rare eggs of Monster also. Also, when you are prompted to share your achievement, always do so to get more and more golds.

What is Monster Legends Gems Generator?

As a warning message, we always recommend that there are two paths of gaining success in the game. The longest route is what we propose. However, some player always searches for a shorter method on how to hack monster legends.

On the internet, you might face some Monster legends Gems Generator site. These sites are completely fake sites and do not produce any gems; instead, they steal some personal information in the name of human verification. Do not enter their website and follow our below mentioned cheats for monster legends.
