No, it was decent prices to build and secondary missions were decent with coins and nuts. The further is obtained in the Game ITA s harder to obtain nuts and becomes almost impossible to build. When you give t pay for a game you might think that developers would have made things possible for everyone to reach, is not the case with this game. More you get you can't get gold cards you need finishing set, the IL Pre-toe path ¢ VI go out with it is practically impossible to finish unless you pay for the game, you can't trade duplicate cards for packages of cards or nuts, and you can't someone unfriend in play. Those people you can't remove you think it's fun to attack numerous times to cause they ¢ has nothing better to do. I only keep the game downloaded in the hope that things change. The developers of the game have placed a gameplay that this is a pay per game play if you want to progress further. Do you need to be so easy that youÃ ¢ King Finishing missions, card set, and the path on a daily basis? No, he just needs to be a little better with the longevity of some things and after 6 weeks to get exactly the same gold card, give one every once in a while to complete a set. ThatÃ ¢ s so I think the track is so long, ya all gives t want anyone who doesn't pay to get a guaranteed missing gold card. I WouldnÃ ¢ t Download the game until you have better reviews and better play in-game. Hey, Ryno10131117! We appreciate feedback and forwarded your comments to our development team.
